

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
Before Indiana's law I would receive at least 2 calls per evening, now I receive one a month.